PLEASE WELCOME CALEB MASTERSON, DO

Dr. Caleb Masterson is a board-certified otolaryngologist and facial plastic surgeon who has made significant contributions to both the medical and entrepreneurial fields. Within just six years of practice, he has successfully opened three Sinus and Allergy Center locations, dramatically improving access to specialized care in Northwest Alabama.

A passionate innovator, Dr. Masterson is the creator of Breathe and Brew, a unique coffee shop designed to foster a welcoming and inclusive clinical environment, as well as My Allergy Score, an app that enhances the patient experience by simplifying allergy management.

Dr. Masterson's expertise and leadership have earned him over 200,000 social media followers, positioning him as a respected voice in healthcare. A seasoned panelist and sought-after conference speaker, he frequently shares his knowledge on healthcare innovation, practice management, and patient-centered care.

Committed to education and mentorship, Dr. Masterson serves as an adjunct professor at the Alabama College of Osteopathic Medicine (ACOM), where he has trained numerous medical students while managing a thriving clinical practice. He has also developed a comprehensive staff development curriculum to support continuous learning and excellence among his team.

Dr. Masterson's achievements have been widely recognized, including his inclusion in the Huntsville Business Journal's Top 40 Under 40. Beyond his professional endeavors, he is dedicated to providing exceptional patient care while inspiring the next generation of healthcare professionals.

ABOUT CME CREDIT

The 2026 Scientific Assembly was designed for South Carolina physicians of all specialties. The South Carolina Medical Association reserves the right to modify speakers, topics, and learning objectives as needed.

The South Carolina Medical Association (SCMA) designates this live activity for a maximum of 10.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The South Carolina Medical Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The South Carolina Medical Association adheres to the ACCME standards regarding industry support of CME in disclosure of faculty and commercial support relationships. This information will be reported at each session.

To be compliant with the AMA’s “Physician’s Recognition Award and Credit System,” we require physicians to attest to the amount of time they are claiming credit – which should be commensurate with the extent of time they participate in a CME activity.
